More Beautiful Dresses

Just like visiting Perkins' Ready-to-Wear Department the first time of the new season when you come here this week and see so many new dresses that were not here on your last visit. It seems that they come to us every day—Monday and Tuesday brought us these THIRTY-ONE additional models, and they are the prettiest yet. Materials are PAULETTE, TRYCOLETTE, ZOUAVE, MESSALINE and TAFFETA. A still greater usage is noticeable of BRAID and BEAD trimmings than on previous styles. We believe you'll agree they are the prettiest yet received when you see them.
